

DIVIDEND VALUE STRATEGY

A SHARED APPROACH SEEKING TO UNCOVER OPPORTUNITIES

Objective

The Dividend Value Strategy objective is to deliver investment returns that exceed that of the Russell 1000 Value by focusing on undervalued stocks with above-average dividend yields.

We seek long-term inflation protection by investing in stocks in the top 40% of the market ranked by dividend yield; companies that we believe are capable of consistent dividend growth; and what we believe to be undervalued stocks with significant potential for capital appreciation during a full market cycle.

Risk Considerations: There are risks associated with dividend investing, including that dividend-issuing companies may choose not to pay a dividend, may not have the ability to pay, or the dividend may be less than what is anticipated. Dividend-issuing companies are subject to interest rate risk and high dividends can sometimes signal that a company is in distress. change in the market or within the company will occur, both of which may adversely affect investment results. Dividends are not guaranteed and must be authorized by the company's board of directors. The biggest risk of equity investing is that returns can fluctuate and investors can lose money.

The performance data quoted represents past performance; past performance does not guarantee future results. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted. The gross returns were calculated on a time weighted basis, including all dividends and interest, accrual income, realized and unrealized gains or losses and are net of all brokerage commissions, execution costs and do not give effect to investment advisory fees, which would reduce such returns. The net returns presented above were calculated by applying the highest institutional investment advisory fee paid by a client of Chartwell. The investment advisory fee schedule for institutional portfolios is: 0.70% on first $10 million, 0.60% on the next $30 million, 0.50% on the next $30 million, 0.40% on the next $30 million, 0.25% on all additional assets.

The Russell 1000 Value Index is the primary index for this strategy and returns are provided to represent the investment environment existing during the time periods shown. For comparison purposes, the index is fully invested and includes the reinvestment of income. The returns for the index do not include any trading costs, management fees, or other costs. Index returns have been taken from published sources. Indices are unmanaged, and one cannot invest directly in an index. Market index results shown are not reduced by any fees as an index is unmanaged.

Russell 1000 Value Index: measures the performance of the large-cap value segment of the US equity universe. It includes the Russell 1000 companies with lower price-to-book ratios and lower expected growth values.
